"We are free to be what we are with the hopes of becoming what we are intended to be."

Dedication

That is Mrs. Pam Ginther. She has shown us the qualities of honesty, friendship, and love. She has shown us how to work hard and how to become a leader. She has shown us how rewarding it is to serve others. Most of all, she cared about us. The tears, the smiles — these we will remember. We the Senior Class of 1979 wish you the best, Mrs. Ginther. You deserve it.

The 1978 football team ended a fairly successful year with 5 wins and 5 losses. With some luck we very well could have been 7-3. The 1978 team was composed of many underclassmen making next year's team very promising.

The senior football players did a lot for our team and we will miss them very much. I only hope they'll use what they learned — not just football, but leadership, sportsmanship, getting along with others, and accepting defeat as well as victory, in their adult lives.

Best of luck seniors and congratulations to the 1978 team.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

From L. Oronoster, G. Harrell, R. Rader, F. Oronoster, R. Winters, Rick Cox, E. Dapp, Manager C. Bradley, D. Kuhn, S. Cardwell, F. Stimpert, B. Stimmell, J. Bond

Behind the excellent leadership provided by our two Senior Co-Captains, John Bond and Brian Stimmell, the varsity basketball team continued its move toward establishing a winning attitude at Crestview. Finishing the year with a record of 11-9 marked the first consecutive winning seasons in basketball in twelve years at Crestview. Teamwork, desire, and great dedication by the players keyed our success.

The players received many individual honors, and were very deserving of them. They have compiled a two-year record of 22-17, and an excellent 19-1 record versus Class A opponents. Some of the honors received were:

Brian Stimmel (Co-captain, senior) — 1st Team All Ashland Area, 2nd team All JAC, 2nd team Coach's District VI, Special Mention AP Northwest District, Ashland Area Player of the Week, WMAN Mansfield Area Player of the Week, Mansfield North South All Star Game Participant, Crestview Varsity Most Valuable Player Award, Honorable Mention Class A All-Ohio

Fred Stimpert (Junior) — 1st Team All Ashland Area, Mansfield News Journal All-Metro Team, 2nd Team All JAC, Special Mention AP Northwest District, Ashland Area Player of the Week (twice), WMAN Mansfield Area Player of the Week, Crestview Varsity Coach's Award

John Bond (Co-captain, senior) — Special Mention All Ashland Area, Crestview Varsity Most Improved Player Award.

Rick Rader (Junior) — Honorable Mention All Ashland Area, Ashland Area Player of the Week, WMAN Mansfield Player of the Week.

Dan Kuhn (Senior) — Crestview Defensive Player of the Year Award.

Girls relax before a meet

The girls started to show real potential this year. Many records were broken. Freshman Theresa Jacobs led the team in points, record breaking, while Senior Cindy See threw the shot and discus. The relay teams, 880 runner Karen Kochheiser, high jumper Mary Ramsay, and 440 runner Sherry Glenn were also among the outstanding players on the team.

With only three graduates the team looks forward to a very successful upcoming year.

The girls were coached by Jack Lime and Mary Ann Zaleski, who gave tremendous help and encouragement.

Boys Track

The 1979 track team, under the expert coaching of Mr. Pruner, Mr. Seymour and Mr. Jennings, faced a disappointing season with many injuries in the top runners. The boys did learn many things about team work, practice and pushing. These fine athletes are to be congratulated for their struggles against the wind, freezing temperatures (it sometimes felt like football weather out there), and the rain, as well as working on their attitudes.

The Varsity baseball team fell one game shy of a .500 season finishing nine wins and ten losses. The team had some very close losses and gained valuable experience as only four seniors graduate and all pitchers will be back. The team was led by S. Frontz, S. Cardwell, R. Rader, T. Tegtmeyer, and F. Stimpert in hitting. The Cougars last year in the JAC featured wins over Loudonville, Ontario, and New London.

A satisfying season for a young team. J. Jacobs was voted MVP and Skip Frontz had the highest batting average at .340.

Choreography by Keryl Bishop

The 1979 Drama Club presented this Gay 90's melodrama in the Little Theatre on March 29, 30, and 31. The plot concerned the misfortunes of the sweet, innocent Nellie Lovelace, and her stalwart hero, Adam Oakhart, as they fall prey to that dastardly villain, Munroe Murgatroyd and that vampish villainess, Ida Rhinegold. The play was filled with excitement, strobe lights, excellent blocking and expression. The play was climaxed by the ever-popular tying the hero to the railroad tracks to be saved in the nick of time. The play was fantastic, showing tremendous effort by all those involved. Special thanks go to the pianists Ann Guthrie and Ellen Midlam, and the crews involved in preparation!

"Oh good, kind sister."

"Bar? . . . Did anybody say Bar? Hey, I'm not drunk!"

Nellie tears her kerchief (and her Heart)

"Oh, mama, I could never stay in such a vulgar hostel!"

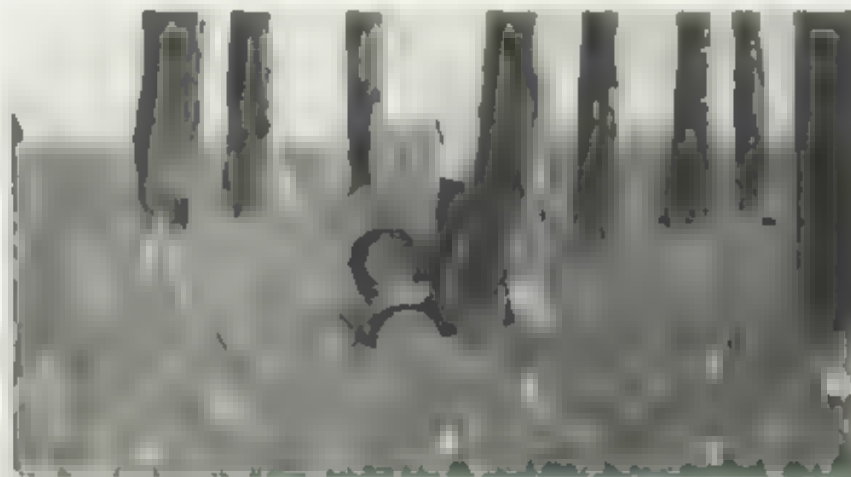

The plot thickens.

"Ha, ha, ha! The hour of my triumph is here!"

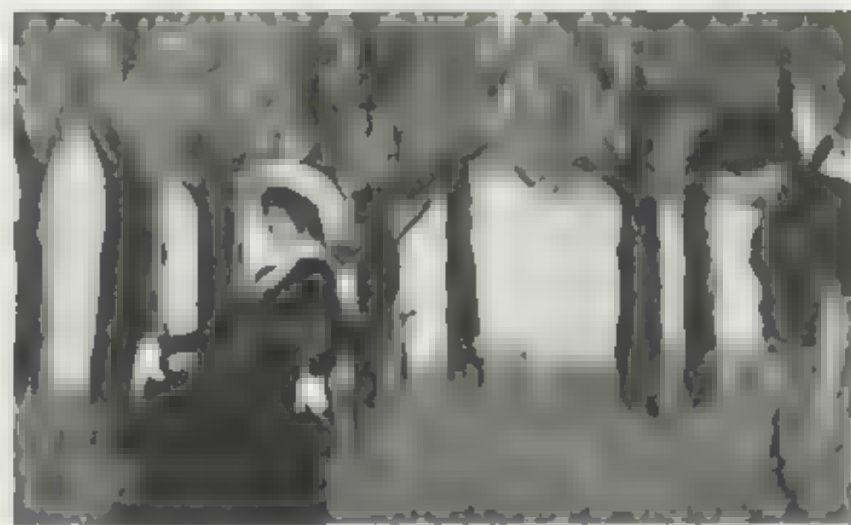

"Oh, good! Kind Mookie, save Adam's life and take it home!"

"Save me! Save me!"

Beowulf certain!

Great job! Drama Club! Fantastic efforts! "Marvelous blocking, "Good acting," were the audiences favorable responses to this production.

Yearbook Staff

The Crescent Staff began the year with a very successful ad sales campaign. Under the direction of experienced co-editors Diane Moore and Deb Neer, work on the yearbook progressed smoothly. Special thanks go to Dawn Blankenship, Tracy and Penny Phillips, Kirk Rader, Tara Calhoun, J. Wolfe, and Bonnie Gray for their extra effort on this year's book. The Crescent is advised by Mr. Burns.

We hope that you enjoy the memories within this — the 1979 Crescent.

We can use these memories as a spring board for the future . . . so we may be "ready to take a chance again."

The Student Council has been very active this year. In addition to one musical assembly we sponsored Hat Day, Slave Day, Homecoming, Christmas Carnations, and held several dances after home basketball games.

We are proud of the fine work done by our officers: Pres. Annette Crank, V. Pres. Mary Robertson, Sec. Kim Smith and Treas. Kirk Rader.

Future Farmers of America

FFA members participated in many activities. A total of fifteen judging contests were entered with several awards being won. Overall this was Crestview's best showing in the state judging contests. Todd Tegtmeyer placed ninth in the state in Agronomy and Sherry Glenn placed ninth in dairy judging. A gold rating was earned by the Parliamentary Procedure team.

Various members attended FFA camp, the state convention and the national convention where Mr. Sherrick received the Honorary American Farmer Degree.

Four hundred trees were added to the arboretum, forty acres of corn and ten acres of wheat were also produced.

Expenses were met by the annual sale of fruit and garden seeds.

The final activity of the year was a banquet honoring students and their parents. Miss Sara Grauer reigned as Queen with David Oswalt as the escort and banquet chairman.

Future Teachers Association

Our organization was a rather small and informal one this year. Members who desired practical teaching experience in a particular subject, they were requested to seek that experience on an individual and independent basis.

Our money-making project consisted of sponsoring a refreshment stand during the intermission of the spring play. Profits will go towards our book scholarship fund.

Officers were: President — Mary Robertson, Vice President — Sara Oswald, Secretary — Pam Whitwell, Treasurer — Sara Whitlow.

Concert Band

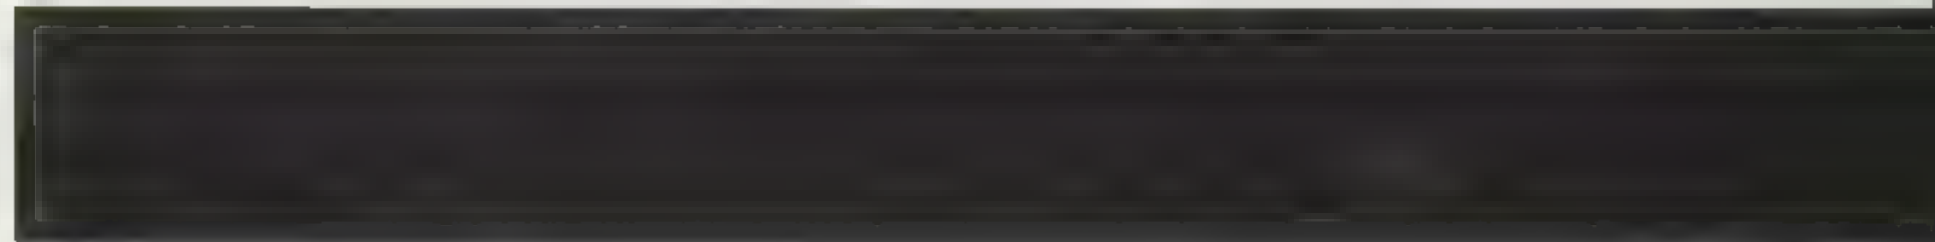

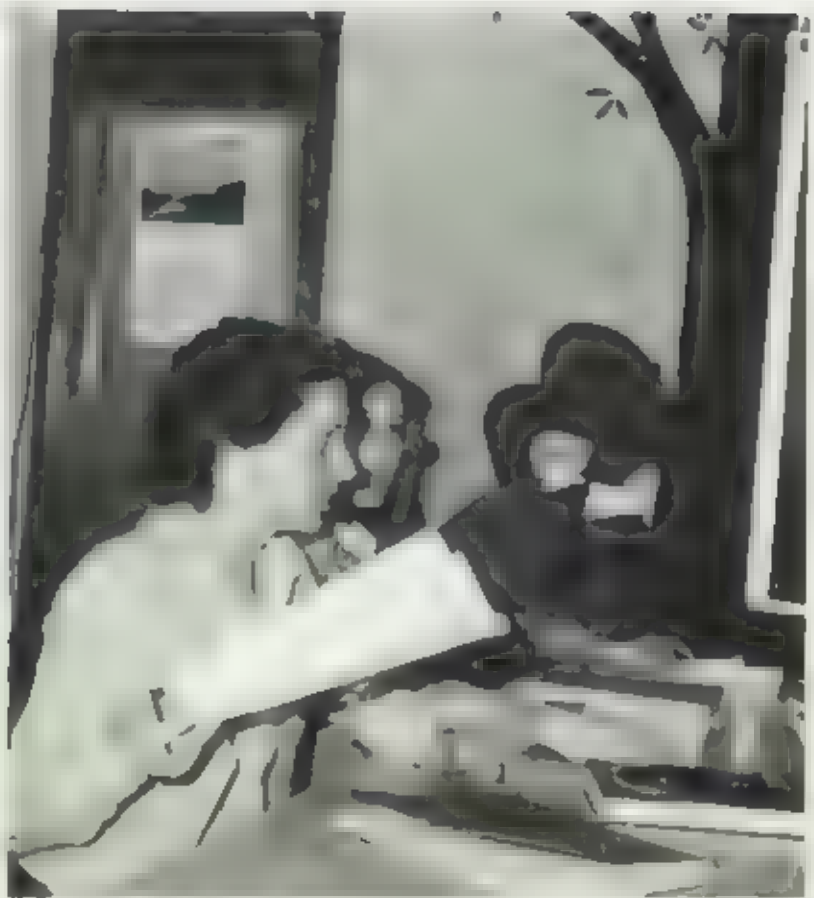

The 78 member Crestview Concert Band has had quite a busy year. For the first time, the band performed for a Christmas concert along with the choir. Solo ensemble contest was held on March 3, with around 15 students participating. A winter concert with the Jr. high and Sr. high bands was presented on March 18. The band competed in the District X band contest on March 24 and came back with a II or excellent rating.

For the first time also, the band provided music for the commencement ceremony June 3.

Graduation

Graduation's a time for us to smile,
School seemed like it was an eternal mile.
So why does everyone start to cry,
Now that it's time to say good-bye?

The homework that seemed like it would never end
Is now all gone and never again.
Friends who always seemed to be there
May be gone next time you've a secret to share.

Sometimes it seemed like we'd never go.

And now we're here, filled with love,
We're all together, and we're proud.

Sometimes it seemed like we'd never go,
And now we're here, filled with love,
We're all together, and we're proud,
We're all together, and we're proud.

I'm proud of you, I'm proud of you,
I'm proud of you, I'm proud of you,
I'm proud of you, I'm proud of you,
I'm proud of you, I'm proud of you.

I'm proud of you, I'm proud of you,

I'm proud of you, I'm proud of you.
